SMSC Policy including promoting Fundamental British Values

Introduction

This reviewed policy was written in September by the Deputy Headteacher in conjunction with the Curriculum Committee. It was approved and adopted by the Governors It will be monitored and reviewed annually as part of the school's monitoring cycle or sooner if required.

This policy outlines the purpose, nature and management of SMSC at the school. It was developed with reference to the new National Guidance from Ofsted 2012 and 'Promoting fundamental British values as part of SMSC in schools November 2014 https://www.gov.uk/government/uploads/system/uploads/attachment_data/file/380595/SMSC_Guidance_Maintained_Schools.pdf

In contrast to the policies for specific curriculum subjects, this policy relates to the whole life of the school. Of particular importance in promoting spiritual, moral, social and cultural development (SMSC) and promoting fundamental British Values is the example set by adults in the school and the quality of relationships between staff and students.

Aims

The aims and objectives of SMSC and promoting fundamental British Values at GSSC are:

- To provide a broad and balanced curriculum which fulfills the statutory requirements of the current Education Act.
- To provide a whole curriculum for all pupils in which equality of opportunity is supported by a policy to which the whole school subscribes.
- To provide a caring and settled environment which will match the needs of the students.
- To deploy the most effective teaching methods with the necessary resources and an efficient and imaginative management of the curriculum.
- To assess each student's progression of learning and develop an on line profile of records using SMSC recording programme.

Rationale

The Education Act (2002) requires the curriculum to 'promote the spiritual, moral, cultural, mental and physical development of pupils at the school':

- Provision for SMSC development will be inspected by Ofsted
- All maintained and schools including church schools must provide a daily act of Collective Worship for all registered pupils
- The connection between good results in the curriculum and high standards in SMSC development is widely acknowledged and is evident in a significant number of Ofsted reports
- The SMSC aspects of education concentrate on the development of the pupil as an individual and as a personality, aiming to enrich and extend the human existence of each child in relation to values, attitudes, beliefs and consequent behaviour acquired during school years

All our pupils and staff at GGSC are treated equally regardless of race, age, creed, gender religion or sexual orientation.

Definitions

Spiritual development is concerned with exploring those dimensions of human experience which help pupils consider their thoughts, feelings and relationships and in particular to consider those things which are of special significance such as people, places, objects and stories. All areas of the curriculum may contribute to pupils' spiritual development.

Moral development is concerned with pupils' ability to make judgements about how they should behave and act and the reasons for such behaviour. It refers to their knowledge, understanding, values and attitudes in relation to what is right or wrong.

The system of rules and codes of behaviour established in our school is an important early introduction of issues of fairness for all and to the consequences of operating outside the acceptance rule system. Pupils are encouraged to understand the need for a common code and to follow it from conviction rather than because of consequences or sanctions. Moral development based on Christian principles should enable pupils to become increasingly responsible for their own actions and behaviour.

Social development refers to the development of abilities and qualities that pupils need to acquire if they are to play a full and active part in society. It also relates to the growth of knowledge and understanding of society in all its aspects.

The school, but in particular the classroom, provides a suitable environment for promoting social development within a Christian context. Pupils learn to lead, to use their initiative and to use individual skills and strengths when working together towards a common goal. The ability to be led to support others and to recognise the different skills of other group members can be developed when children work co-operatively.

Cultural development refers to the development of knowledge and understanding of differing cultural beliefs, customs and traditions. It is an increasing appreciation of the systems of values and attitudes which form the basis of identity and cohesion within societies and groups.

Provision of Opportunities

Spiritual, moral, social and cultural development including promoting fundamental British values does not take place in any one aspect, in isolation of other aspects of school life.

We aim to create a caring environment where everyone is welcome, and given the opportunity to develop their full potential.

We endeavour to provide an environment and ethos in which children and adults can grow and develop in spirituality and where positive attitudes and consistency provide children with good role models, and similarly, older children are expected to demonstrate good behaviour to younger children. All children are valued equally whatever their age or stage of development, and are entitled to maximum success. The ethos encourages safe, sensible behaviour incorporating good manners, consideration, courtesy and respect for others whilst encouraging imagination, inspiration, independence, resilience and reflection.
